

SOLID GROUND

They say You are as young as you feel
And they say you have to find yourself
But what If you are getting older
And you're still not the one you try to be

And they encourage you to have these big dreams
Cause you can be everything you want
Until with every disappointment
Life breaks o pieces from your crown

I awake and I number each of my bones
Cause they ache and my heart feels like a stone
But I lift my hands up to a father
Who always keeps his promises

This life you have created is like a house of cards
It's built on simple phrases and empty promises
One day it has to break and you will find yourself
In need for help with finding some solid piece of ground
Some solid piece of ground
Some solid piece of ground
